

The 2023 Canadian Spa & Wellness Awards are Coming Soon!

Toronto, July 31, 2023 – Spa Inc. magazine's Canadian Spa & Wellness Awards – the nationally recognized program highlighting the outstanding spas and industry partners in Canada – has announced the 2023 opening dates.

This year the 2023 program will open nominations on August 21, and they will stay open until September 18.

During this four-week nominations window, industry professionals and spa consumers are invited to nominate the businesses and individuals they consider to be the elite in the spa and wellness industry. Winners will be unveiled this fall.

This one-of-a-kind program has been the vehicle of recognition in the Canadian spa industry for 9 years and continues to acknowledge the hardworking, innovative spa professionals who provide the best in wellness and customer service to clients across the country. This includes paying tribute to and celebrating exceptional spas, educators, product lines and partners and supporting leaders as they continue to expand their businesses and contribute to the physical and mental wellness of Canadians.

Winning and being a part of these awards will not only inspire confidence in guests and retain loyal clientele but also stimulate continuous growth and development for your business.

Nominees in the 2023 awards program will cover the full spectrum of the industry and range from the Top 25 Spas in Canada, day spas, hotel spas, medi spas, top spa partners and much more. To view the categories, visit HERE.

We encourage everyone to nominate themselves and the partners and educators that have helped you along the way.
